ARTIST OF THE YEAR

Karla Hart is a strong, proud Noongar Yorga who is committed to using her skills as a performing artist to showcase her culture.

A graduate of the WA Academy of Performing Arts, Karla has worked as an actress and youth cultural workshop facilitator for Yirra Yaakin Aboriginal Corporation and various government and non-government agencies in WA. Karla has often received high praise from the schools where she conducted cultural workshops.

Karla established Kwarbah Djookian – a professional traditional dance group. Karla has also participated in a cultural exchange with China which was a career highlight for her.

Karla is now a broadcaster on Perth's new Aboriginal Radio Station 100.9fm Noongar Radio. Karla shares her incredible energy and passion for music with listeners every afternoon between 4pm and 6pm.

Karla was also a State finalist in the recent 'Deadly Funny' competition in Perth, WA entertaining the crowd with her hilarious, ribald, personal yarns. Karla has also been a state finalist twice in the 'National Poetry Slam' competition. Karla is a very talented, ambitious and hard-working person who is not afraid to reach for the stars and achieve her dreams.
